

Day 1: Monday, October 14, 2024

Time	Subject	Session Description	Location
8:00 am - 9:00 am		Check-In	Owen Graduate School of Management
9:00 am - 9:30 am		Opening Remarks	Owen Graduate School of Management
9:30 am - 11:00 am	Title IX, Sexual Misconduct, and Clery Compliance	In this session, participants will explore the connection between Title IX and Sexual Misconduct cases and how the Clery Act affects the management of those cases.	Owen Graduate School of Management
11:00 am - 12:00 pm	Title IX Training Requirements	In this session, participants will explore the expanded training requirements outlined in the 2024 Title IX Regulations. Participants will also examine the different categories of individuals that require Title IX trainings and how institutions following the 2020 Title IX Regulations can apply similar training requirements to satisfy their compliance obligations.	Owen Graduate School of Management
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm		Lunch	Owen Graduate School of Management
1:30 pm - 3:00 pm	Title IX and Athletics	In this session, participants will examine the intersection between Title IX and athletic compliance under the NCAA. Participants will also explore the Department of Education's proposed rules regarding athletic participation and understand its effect on campuses, as well as how it relates to NCAA compliance.	Owen Graduate School of Management
3:00 pm - 3:15 pm		Snack Break	Owen Graduate School of Management
3:15 pm - 4:15 pm	Title IX and Employment	In this session, participants will examine the intersection of the 2020 and 2024 Title IX Regulations with cases of misconduct involving employees. This session will also provide participants with important information regarding the intersection of Title IX with other employment laws such as Title VII.	Owen Graduate School of Management
4:15 pm - 5:30 pm	Small Group Session: Benchmarking with Peer Institutions	In this session, participants will break into small groups to discuss benchmarking criteria with peer institutions. Participants will identify peer institutions and discuss strategies for advocating for Title IX and Sexual Misconduct resources on their campuses, as well as examine how peer institutions are navigating the legal confusion around Title IX created by various court decisions and state mandates.	Owen Graduate School of Management
5:30pm - 7:30 pm		Balcony Networking/Reception	Owen Graduate School of Management

Day 2: Tuesday, October 15, 2024

Time	Subject	Session Description	Location
8:30 am - 9:30am	Title IX, Sexual Misconduct, and The ADA	In this session, participants will act as the case decision-maker and review the submitted cross-examination questions from the party advisors for their relevance. Participants will also review the answers provided by the parties during the case study's live hearing and explore options for organizing this information.	Owen Graduate School of Management

9:30 am - 10:30 am	Title IX/SM and Free Speech	In this session, participants will review steps necessary to make credibility assessments against parties and witnesses. Participants will apply their skills by conducting a credibility assessment of the parties and witnesses identified in the evolving case study.	Owen Graduate School of Management
10:30 am - 12:00 pm	Informal Resolution Options	In this session, participants will reivev the skills necessary to write an effective and Title IX-compliant Notice of Findings and rationale.	Owen Graduate School of Management
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm	Lunch on your own
1:30 pm - 2:30 pm	Non-Discrimination Statements and SM Policies	In this session, participants will outline a Notice of Findings based on the case provided in the evolving case study. Participants will also assign appropriate sanctions and discuss the potential for appeal based on their own campus appeal procedures.	Owen Graduate School of Management
2:30 pm - 3:00 pm	Final Q&A Session		Owen Graduate School of Management