

Day 1: Monday, October 14, 2024

Time	Subject	Session Description	Location
8:00 am - 9:00 am	Check-In		Owen Graduate School of Management
9:00 am - 9:30 am	Opening Remarks		Owen Graduate School of Management
9:30am - 10:30 am	Title IX vs Sexual Misconduct: How State and Federal Law Affect Your Case Management	In this session, participants will examine and understand the differences between Title IX cases and other types of sexual misconduct cases. Participants will also explore how state and federal case law influence Title IX and sexual misconduct case management across the country.	Owen Graduate School of Management
10:30 am - 11:15am	Evolving Case Study Application: Charging a Case	In this session, participants will determine how to charge the case outlined in the Case Study based on their own institution's Title IX and/or Sexual Misconduct policies. Participants will then discuss the nuances and decision-making processes for charging the case outlined in the Case Study.	Owen Graduate School of Management
11:15 am - 12:00 pm	Effective Communication with Case Participants	In this session, participants will learn the skills necessary to effectively and compassionately communicate with all case participants. This includes empathetic and neutral communications with complainants, respondents, witnesses, advisors, and campus stakeholders.	Owen Graduate School of Management
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm	Lunch		Owen Graduate School of Management
1:30 pm - 3:00 pm	The Investigation Phase and The Investigation Report	In this session, participants will explore the overview of the investigation phase in Title IX and Sexual Misconduct cases, including examining investigation techniques for interviewing case participants and organizing investigative materials. Participants will also gain an understanding of how to write a neutral, unbiased investigation report and how that report ties into the adjudication phase of a case.	Owen Graduate School of Management
3:00 pm - 3:15 pm	Snack Break		Owen Graduate School of Management
3:15 pm - 4:30 pm	Evolving Case Study Application: The Investigation Phase and The Investigation Report	In this session, participants will apply the investigation techniques reviewed in the preceding session to the evolving case study. Participants will apply their learning by determining what types of information they'd like to connect as they investigate the case within the case study, how to organize that information, and how to draft an outline for an investigation report.	Owen Graduate School of Management
4:30pm - 5:30 pm	The Adjudication Phase: Options Under the 2024 Regulations	In this session, participants will examine the adjudication options allowed under the 2024 Title IX Regulations and how those options apply to other types of Sexual Misconduct cases.	Owen Graduate School of Management
5:30pm - 7:30 pm	Balcony Reception and Networking Event		Owen Graduate School of Management

Day 2: Tuesday, October 15, 2024

Time	Subject	Session Description	Location
8:30 am - 9:15am	Evolving Case Study Application: Cross-Examination Relevancy Determination and Information Organization	In this session, participants will act as the case decision-maker and review the submitted cross-examination questions from the party advisors for their relevance. Participants will also review the answers provided by the parties during the case study's live hearing and explore options for organizing this information.	Owen Graduate School of Management

9:15 am - 10:45 am	Credibility Assessments	In this session, participants will review steps necessary to make credibility assessments against parties and witnesses. Participants will apply their skills by conducting a credibility assessment of the parties and witnesses identified in the evolving case study.	Owen Graduate School of Management
10:45 am - 11:45am	Rationale Writing Techniques	In this session, participants will review the skills necessary to write an effective and Title IX-compliant Notice of Findings and rationale.	Owen Graduate School of Management
12:00 pm - 1:30 pm	Lunch on your own
1:30 pm - 2:30 pm	Evolving Case Study Application: Outlining a Notice of Findings, Apply Sanctions, and Discuss Potential Appeal Considerations	In this session, participants will outline a Notice of Findings based on the case provided in the evolving case study. Participants will also assign appropriate sanctions and discuss the potential for appeal based on their own campus appeal procedures.	Owen Graduate School of Management
2:30 pm - 3:00 pm	Final Q&A Session		Owen Graduate School of Management